I Wouldn't Change You If I Could
By Ricky Skagg
Words and Music by Arthur Q. Smith & Paul H. Jones

VERSE 1:

I (G)wouldn't change a sin-gle thing a-bout (D)you if I could
The way you are just suits me to a (G)"T"
A prin-cess in a sto-ry book
A (D)king up-on his throne
That's what we are, and you be-long to (G)me

CHORUS:

I (C)would-n't change you if I could (D)I (G)love you as you are You're (C)all that I could wish for
If I (G)wished up-on a (D)star
An (G)an-gel sent from heav-en
You're (D)ev-'ry-thing thats good
You're per-fect just the (Am)way you are
I would-n't (D)change you if I could

VERSE 2:

(G)Your eyes, your lips, your ten-der smile
I'd leave (D)them as they are
And come what may I'd nev-er change a (G)thing
And if I were a pot-ter
And (D)you a piece of clay
The on-ly thing I'd change would be your (G)name
